

ASSOCHAM hosts “Futuristic Technologies & 7th Technology Excellence Awards”

EOI CORRESPONDENT

KOLKATA, NOV 19/--/The Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM) today organized an event “Futuristic Technologies & 7th Technology Excellence Awards” in Kolkata. ASSOCHAM released a study report on Futuristic Technologies as it felicitated Cyber Security Centre of Excellence of Bengal at an event, “Futuristic Technologies & 7th Technology Excellence Awards” in Kolkata. The program was attended by Government and Industry representatives across segments and from leading cities of India, sources informed.

Randhir Kumar, IAS, Secretary Dept. of Information Technology & Electronics, Govt. of West

Bengal and Managing Director, WEBEL, Debashish Sen, IAS (Retd) MD WBHIDCO, Amitabh Ray, Chairman, ASSOCHAM Information Technology Council East & Managing Director,

Ericsson, Devroop Dhar, Co-founder and Managing Director, Knowledge Partner, Primus Partners, Mumbai, Senior Member of ASSOCHAM National Management Committee & Perminder Jeet Kaur,

Director ASSOCHAM were present to grace the occasion along with Sanjay Kr Das, Joint Secretary of Department, sources said. In her opening remarks MsKaur said, Industry partnerships shall help scale up Indian IT industry further. She said our core strengths are innovation and skilled human resource. Mr Ray shared India is emerging as a lead player in Global IT market. He added the cutting edge technologies shall business grow at pace never seen before, sources also said.

Mr Dhar, while releasing the study report for ASSOCHAM said, This report talks about the new age digital technologies and how various initiatives and policies by the government can drive growth in this new age technology era. He said report shares the views of citizens and various recommendations from industry experts wherein various innovative solutions are introduced to deal with the current challenges which can be used to enhance India's position globally.